Meet Larry R. Glaze, CPA, CFP®

Larry Glaze, CPA, CFP®, brings over 35 years of experience in business management, accounting and financial planning to his clients. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Humboldt State University (1976), an Associate's degree in Accounting from Southwest College (1974) and a Bachelor of Theology degree from Corban University (2004). Larry is both a Certified Public Accountant (CPA credentials awarded in 1980) and a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional (CFP® certification awarded in 1988). Besides tax, accounting, and financial planning, Larry also is proficient in business valuations for estates, sales and purchase decisions and stock buy-sell agreements.

After working as an IRS auditor in Northern California, Larry relocated to Salem in 1980 and formed the CPA firm Johnson, Glaze & Company, PC. The firm exists to help clients work toward their financial goals by providing professional, objective advice in all areas of personal and business tax, accounting, and financial planning. Recognizing our clients would benefit by having asset management services available under the same roof, Larry and his partners became advisor affiliates of The H Group, Inc. over a decade ago and later transitioned to our current firm, JGC Wealth Management, LLC toward the end of 2012.

He is a Vietnam Veteran who served his country in the Marine Corps from 1968-1970. Over the years he has served on the governing board of churches and other non-profit organizations throughout the Pacific Northwest.

Larry and his wife Donna are the proud parents of two sons. Nate, a pastor, and his wife Beca, a school counselor, live in San Jose, California. Luke and his wife Jocelyn are economic development leaders in Aqaba, Jordan. Larry & Donna have three wonderful grandchildren. Larry enjoys spending time outdoors fishing and hiking with his family.
