4b: Types of Advisory Services

Asset Management

JGC Wealth Management offers a variety of investment advisory services to our clients, which include small businesses, individuals and pension plans. We tailor our advice and services to your objectives, means and timelines. All clients will sign an Investment Advisory Agreement that will precisely define the types of services we are providing, our role in providing those services to you and how we may carry out those services for you.

As part of our investment advisory services, JGC Wealth Management may recommend that you use the services of a third party Investment Advisor to manage a portion or all of your investment portfolio. Factors that we take into consideration when making our recommendation(s) include, but are not limited to, the following: performance, methods of analysis, fees, your financial needs, investment goals, risk tolerance, and investment objectives. We will monitor performance to ensure its management and investment style remain aligned with your investment goals and objectives.

Retirement Plan Consulting

JGC Wealth Management provides a full spectrum of retirement plan consulting to businesses and non-profits. We analyze a company or organization's current plan and tax structures, underlying investments, and employee census which we then align with company goals and objectives into a comprehensive plan. At that point we are able to provide tailored ongoing management, employee servicing and education.

Financial Planning & Consulting

JGC Wealth Management offers financial planning services for our clients. We will typically prepare a written financial plan for financial planning clients. The plan considers all of your assets, liabilities, goals and objectives. You are encouraged to review your plans on a regular basis. The plan includes gathering all information necessary to provide you with appropriate and agreed upon services, which may include one or more of the following:

- Investment Planning
- Investment Policy Statements
- Financial Independence
- Retirement Planning
- Capital Needs Analysis (Goal Funding)
- Estate Planning
- Education Planning
- Pension Consulting
- Risk Management
- Budgeting and Cash Flow Planning
- Debt Management

For California Residents: Subsection (j) of Rule 260.238, California Code of Regulations requires that all Investment Advisors disclose to their clients that lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources. Pursuant to California Rule 260.235.2, if a conflict exists between the interests of the Advisor or its associated persons and the interest of the client; the client is under no obligation to act upon this Advisor's or associated person's recommendations. If the client elects to act on any of the recommendations, the client is under no obligation to effect the transaction through the Advisor or its associated person when the person is an agent with a licensed broker-dealer or through any associate or affiliate of such person.

4c: Client Tailored Relationships and Restrictions

As a fiduciary, JGC Wealth Management always acts solely in your best interests. Your portfolio is customized based on your investment objectives. You may make requests or make suggestions regarding the investments made in your portfolio. Restrictions on trading which, in our opinion, are not in your best interest cannot be honored and if forced may result in the termination of our agreement.

Similarly, you are under no obligation to act upon JGC Wealth Management's or associated person's recommendations. If you elect to act on any of the recommendations, you are under no obligation to effect the transaction through JGC Wealth Management or its associated person when the person is an agent with a licensed broker-dealer or through any associate or affiliate of such person.

4d: Wrap Fee Program

JGC Wealth Management does not sponsor or manage portfolios for any wrap fee programs.

4e: Assets under Management (AUM)

ITEM 5 – FEES AND COMPENSATION

5a, b & d: Fee Schedules, Payments & Options

Asset Management Tiered Fee Schedule

Assets Under Management	Annual Fee (%)	Quarterly Fee (%)
$0 to $249,999	1.40%	0.350%
$250,000 to $499,999	1.00%	0.250%
$500,000 to $749,999	0.85%	0.2125%
$750,000 to $1,499,999	0.70%	0.175%
$1,500,000 to $2,999,999	0.60%	0.150%
$3,000,000 or more	0.50%	0.125%

For purposes of determining value, securities and other instruments traded on a market for which actual transaction prices are publicly reported are valued at the last reported sale price on the principal market in which they are traded. All other assets are valued at fair value by JGC Wealth Management. Notwithstanding the above, fees are generally negotiable.

The fee includes the time and activities necessary to work with your attorney and/or accountant in reaching agreement on solutions, as well as assisting them in implementation of all appropriate documents. We are not responsible for attorney or account fees charged to you as a result of the above activities. Compensation for our services will be calculated in accordance with what is set in the client's agreement. We may modify the terms of any agreement with at least 30 days prior written notice. All Investment Advisors are required to disclose to their clients that lower fees for comparable services may be available from other sources. In cases where there are third party managers or sub-advisors, they are paid a portion of our fee.

JGC Wealth Management fees are paid from your account by the custodian when we submit an invoice to them. If there is insufficient cash in your account to pay your fees, an equal balance of securities in your portfolio may be sold to pay our fee. In addition to our fees, there may be custodial, mutual fund or similar third party management fees and charges.

JGC Wealth Management fees are paid quarterly in arrears, with payment due within 10 days from the date of the invoice. Our quarterly fee is determined by taking the percentage rate we charge per quarter times the market value of the account on the last day of the quarter. The market value is the sum of the values of all assets in the account, not adjusted by any margin debit. Fees for partial months at the commencement or termination of our agreement will be billed or refunded on a pro-rated basis contingent on the number of days the account was open during the month. Quarterly fee adjustments for additional assets received into the account or for partial withdrawals during a quarter will also be provided based on the number of days in the calendar quarter that the assets were in the account.

Retirement Plan Consulting

Retirement plan consulting fees vary widely depending on the scope of services and the size of the plan. We work with experienced third-party service providers like Retirement Plan Consultants, LLC ("RPC") to provide full service retirement plans and consulting. In more basic scenarios, we provide our services at a rate of $200 an hour to provide guidance to businesses or non-profits. For ERISA covered 401(k) plans, we are paid a percentage of the assets under management as part of the agreement you sign with our partners. These fees are typically:

Managed Assets	Annual Fee (%)	Quarterly Fee (%)
0 to $250,000	0.75%	0.1875%
$250,001 to $750,000	0.70%	0.1750%
$750,001 to $1,000,000	0.65%	0.1625%
$1,000,001 to $2,000,000	0.60%	0.1500%
$2,000,001 to $5,000,000	0.45%	0.1125%
$5,000,000 to $10,000,000	0.40%	0.1000%
$10,000,0001 and above	Negotiable	Negotiable

In certain circumstances, these fees may be negotiable. There are also additional fees for RPC or other third party managers, which include startup fees, annual account fees and per participant fees as set forth in the agreement you sign with them. The combined fees between JGC Wealth Management and its third-party service providers will not exceed 3% of assets under management. Clients are generally billed a single fee for both, depending on the agreement, from which we and the third party are paid. Fees are deducted quarterly in advance directly from the account. In certain circumstances, we may provide a method for direct billing.

JGC Wealth Management is deemed to be a Fiduciary to advisory clients that are employee benefit plans or individual retirement accounts (IRAs) pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income and Securities Act ("ERISA"), and regulations under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the "Code"), respectively. As such, JGC Wealth Management is subject to specific duties and obligations under ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code that include among other things, restrictions concerning certain forms of compensation. JGC Wealth Management only charges asset management or financial planning fees for our services and does not receive any commissions, 12b-1 fees or other forms compensation.

Financial Planning

Fees for financial planning services are based on a rate of $250.00 per hour. Special arrangements can be made for clients wishing on-going financial planning services.

Hourly financial planning fees are paid upon completion of the project. Services performed on a fixed fee basis require a retainer equal to one-half the fixed fee. The remaining balance will be billed in equal installments on a monthly basis until the project is completed. If invoiced, they are due within ten (10) days of invoice. Special arrangements may be made with clients wishing ongoing financial planning services.

5.d: Termination

Either JGC Wealth Management or our clients can terminate our agreement upon receipt of written notice to the other party, to include written agreement to changes by the client.

When a Financial Planning agreement is terminated, we will refund any pre-paid, unearned fees. Fees for our Asset Management services since the end of the prior quarter will be calculated on a prorated basis and withdrawn prior to account closure. Prorated refunds for Retirement Plan Consulting Fees will be made within 30 calendar days of the effective date of termination.

When an agreement is terminated, all assets may need to be transferred from the current custodian. You will be responsible for paying all fees including full custodial administrative fees, account closure fees, mutual fund fees and all trading costs due to the termination. Custodian may assess additional fees for transfer of illiquid investments. If there is insufficient cash in the account, the liquidation of some securities may be used to pay the fees. Prior to termination of an agreement, we can provide a good-faith estimate of these fees.

5c: Third Party Fees

You are responsible for the payment of all third party fees (i.e. custodian fees, mutual fund fees, transaction fees, etc.). Those fees are separate and distinct from the fees we charge.

All brokerage commissions, stock transfer fees, and other similar charges incurred in connection with transactions for the account will be paid out of the assets in the account and are in addition to the investment management fees paid to us. While we take measures to ensure the fees charged are accurate, it is your responsibility to ensure the amount of fee charged is correct. In addition to statements sent by us, you will receive statements directly from these brokers, custodians or mutual funds or other investments you hold. We strongly urge you to compare these statements for accuracy.

JGC Wealth Management will use our best judgment and good faith efforts in rendering services to you. Except as may otherwise be provided by law, we will not be liable to you for (a) any loss that you may suffer by reason of any investment decision made or other action taken or omitted in good faith by JGC Wealth Management with that degree of care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances that a prudent person acting in a fiduciary capacity would use; (b) any loss arising from our adherence to your instructions; or (c) any unauthorized act or failure to act by a custodian of your account. The principal business of JGC Wealth Management is that of a registered investment advisor and provider of financial planning services. Some of our members may be certified public accountants (CPAs). Employees who are CPAs or hold other tax preparation professional designations may also be paid based on these services they provide. In cases where we receive additional payment, there may be a conflict of interest. At all times, you are free to choose an outside agency or firm to avoid the possibility of there being a conflict of interest.

JGC Wealth Management will disclose any material conflict of interest relating to JGC Wealth Management, our representatives, or any of our employees which could reasonably be expected to impair the rendering of unbiased and objective advice.

10d: Selection of Other Advisors and How this Advisor is Compensated for those Selections

JGC Wealth Management may enter directly into sub-advisory relationships with independent registered investment advisory firms (“subadvisors”) on behalf of its clients as part of our discretionary services. Prior to entering into a relationship, JGC Wealth Management performs a due diligence review of the subadvisor.

This review includes, but is not limited to, the review of regulatory filings, compliance program, investment offerings, and the performance of the strategies considered. The due diligence process includes multiple conversations and may include in-person visits to the subadvisor's place of business.

When a strategy offered through a subadvisor is appropriate for a client of JGC Wealth Management, the client will be given additional information about the subadvisor and the recommended investment strategy which may include the subadvisor's Form ADV, Part 2A and 2B, Privacy Notice, and any other information that may be relevant or informative to the client. The client will not engage the subadvisor directly; the client's advisory relationship remains with JGC Wealth Management as set forth in the client's Investment Advisory agreement. Sub-advisors are paid a portion of the fee that you pay to us.

ITEM 11 – CODE OF ETHICS, PARTICIPATION IN CLIENT TRANSACTIONS AND PERSONAL TRADING

11a: Code of Ethics Description

JGC Wealth Management has adopted a Code of Ethics that governs a number of potential conflicts of interest we have when providing our advisory services to you. This Code of Ethics is designed to ensure we meet our fiduciary obligation to you and to stress the importance of a culture of compliance.

An additional benefit of our Code of Ethics is to detect and prevent violations of securities laws, including our obligations we owe to you. JGC Wealth Management's Code of Ethics is comprehensive, is distributed to each employee at the time of hire, and annually thereafter (if there are changes). We also supplement the Code of Ethics with annual training and on-going monitoring of employee activity. A complete copy of our Code of Ethics will be supplied to you, free of charge, if you request it.

JGC Wealth Management's Code of Ethics includes the following:

- Requirements related to the confidentiality of your personal, business and financial information
- Prohibitions on insider trading (if we are in possession of material, non-public information)
- Reporting of gifts and business entertainment
- Internal tracking and reporting of employee and firm transactions
- Reporting (on an on-going and quarterly basis) all personal securities transactions (what we call "reportable securities" as mandated by regulation)
- On an annual basis, we require all employees to re-certify to our Code of Ethics, identify members of their household and any account to which they have a beneficial ownership (they "own" the account or have "authority" over the account), securities held in certificate form and all securities they own at that time
- We will always maintain full disclosure with our clients so that you can make informed decisions
- We will always evaluate our activity from the view of our clients to ensure that any and all required disclosures are made

For California Residents: JGC Wealth Management adheres to the California Code of Regulations, Title 10 Section 260.238 (k), (1), (2) and (o) which prohibits investment advisors from:

(k) Failing to disclose to a client in writing before entering into or renewing an advisory agreement with that client any material conflict of interest relating to the advisor, its representatives or any requires that of its employees, which could be reasonably expected to impair the rendering of unbiased and objective advice including:

(1) Compensation arrangements connected with advisory services to clients which are in addition to compensation from such clients for such services; and

(2) Charging a client an advisory fee for rendering advice without disclosing that a commission for executing securities transactions pursuant to such advice will be received by the advisor, its representatives or its employees, or that such advisory fee is being reduced by the amount of the commission earned by the advisor, its representatives or employees for the sale of securities to the client.

(o) Making any untrue statement of a material fact or omitting a statement of material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading in the solicitation of advisory clients.

11b: Recommendations Involving Material Interests

JGC Wealth Management nor its employees recommend or sell to clients securities in which we have a material financial interest.

11c: Investing Personal Money in the Same Securities as Clients

JGC Wealth Management, or its employees, may buy and sell some of the same securities for our own accounts that we buy and sell for our clients. We will buy or sell from our clients' accounts before we buy or sell from our accounts. In some cases JGC Wealth Management, or its employees, may buy or sell securities for our own accounts and not for clients' accounts, as it may not meet the objectives or plans for the client.

11 d: Trading At/Around Same Time as Clients

We do not aggregate trades for ourselves or our employees with client transactions.

Because the situations outlined above represent actual or potential conflicts of interest to our clients, we have established policies and procedures as described in our firm's Code of Ethics, to ensure our firm complies with its regulatory obligations and provides our clients and potential clients with full and fair disclosure of such conflicts of interest.

ITEM 12 – BROKERAGE PRACTICES

12a: Selecting Brokerage Firms

As part of our services, JGC Wealth Management will recommend a broker-dealer. We have selected our broker-dealers based on price, reliability, speed of processing, tools and "best execution" in addition to other considerations. And while you are not required to effect transactions through any broker-dealer recommended by us, we feel we have made our selections based on a totality of benefits they offer.

To avoid creating a possible conflict of interest in recommending broker-dealers, we have established the following restrictions in order to ensure its fiduciary responsibilities:

- JGC Wealth Management adheres to our Code of Ethics as outlined in Item 11 above.
- If JGC Wealth Management receives separate compensation for transactions, we will fully disclose them.
- JGC Wealth Management emphasizes your unrestricted right to select and choose your own broker or dealer.
- JGC Wealth Management will always act in accordance with all applicable federal and state regulations governing registered investment advisory practices.

1. JGC Wealth Management may purchase software, tools, training programs or seminar services from the broker-dealer(s) recommended to custody client assets. Additionally, broker-dealers may provide services, tools or other non-financial benefits to us as a benefit for using the broker-dealer's services. These benefits may be used to service all of our accounts, whether enrolled with a particular broker-dealer or not. There are no minimum number of clients or asset amounts required to receive these benefit, which removes any direct incentive to direct clients to a particular broker-dealer. The first consideration when recommending broker-dealers to clients is best execution.

2. JGC Wealth Management receives no referrals from broker-dealers or third parties in exchange for using that broker-dealer or third party.

3. JGC is not involved in direct brokerage practices and does not accept client instructions for brokerage transactions. We do not provide investment advisory services to clients who do not use the broker-dealer we have recommended to custody client assets.

12b: Sales Aggregation

JGC Wealth Management is authorized to aggregate purchases and sales and other transactions made for your account with purchases and sales and other transactions in the same or similar securities or instruments for other clients of ours. When we aggregate transactions, the actual prices applicable to the aggregated transactions will be averaged, and the account will be deemed to have purchased or sold its proportionate share of the securities or instruments involved at the average price obtained. Stock exchange regulations may in certain instances prevent the executing broker-dealer from delivering to the account a confirmation slip with respect to its participation in the aggregated transaction and, in such event, we will advise you in writing of any purchase or disposition of instruments for the account with respect to any such aggregated transaction. We will direct that confirmations of any transactions effected for the account will be sent, in conformity with applicable law, to you.

ITEM 13 – REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS

13a: Periodic Reviews

Accounts are reviewed by Michael Blanchard, CCO, or qualified staff members. The frequency of reviews is determined based on your investment objectives, but no less than annually. When the services of a third party Investment Advisor is used to manage a portion or all of your investment portfolio, the third party investment advisor also performs periodic reviews of client accounts. Together, we monitor performance to ensure its management and investment style remains aligned with your investment goals and objectives.

JGC Wealth Management's quarterly fee process is supported by a third party service provider. Together, they jointly verify client account balances, calculate client quarterly fees, and review account billings to verify accuracy.

Financial planning clients receive their financial plans and recommendations at the time the service is completed. Depending on the type of financial planning services we are providing per our agreement with you, we may meet quarterly, annually or less frequently with you to discuss any potential changes to your financial plan.

13b: Review Triggers

More frequent reviews are triggered by a change in your investment objectives; tax considerations; large deposits or withdrawals; large sales or purchases; loss of confidence in corporate management; or, changes in economic climate.

13c: Regular Reports

All investment advisory clients receive quarterly and annual written reports from JGC Wealth

Management. Financial planning clients do not normally receive investment reports.

ITEM 14 – CLIENT REFERRALS AND OTHER COMPENSATION

14a: Economic Benefits Provided by Third Parties for Advice Rendered to Clients

JGC Wealth Management does not receive economic benefits from third parties for the advice we render to our clients.

14b: Compensation to Non-Advisory Personnel for Client Referrals

JGC Wealth Management does not directly or indirectly compensate any person for client referrals.

ITEM 15 – CUSTODY

JGC Wealth Management clients' accounts are held by a qualified custodian and other than to withdraw advisory fees, JGC Wealth Management shall have no liability to the client for any loss or other harm to any property in the account, including any harm to any property in the account resulting from the insolvency of the custodian or any unauthorized acts of the agents or employees of the custodian and whether or not the full amount or such loss is covered by the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") or any other insurance which may be carried by the custodian. The client understands that SIPC provides only limited protection for the loss of property held by a broker-dealer. As a fiduciary, JGC Wealth Management will always act in the client's best interests and in doing so, the above does not limit or modify that duty to our clients. Custodial statements will include fees charged by JGC Wealth Management. California clients also receive a statement from us that shows our fee and its calculation. We strongly urge you to review and/or compare the statement(s) for accuracy.

ITEM 16 – INVESTMENT DISCRETION

Professional Designation(s):

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV)

ABV: (Accredited in Business Valuation)

The Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) credential is for CPAs with extensive experience and who specialize in business valuation. The ABV program provides specialized access to information, education, tools, and support that enhance credential holders' ability to make a genuine difference for their clients and employers. The credential program allows credential holders to brand or position themselves as CPAs who are premier business valuation service providers. It lets a CPA's clients know he or she is an expert in this field and is an essential marketing tool for the CPA wishing to specialize in this area. The ABV credential is the most rigorous of the valuation certifications and holds the most prestige in the marketplace.

The ABV credential is exclusively granted by the AICPA to qualified CPAs. To qualify, a new ABV applicant must:

- Hold a valid and unrevoked CPA certificate issued by a legally constituted state authority.
- Pass the ABV examination. The content of the ABV exam has been developed to test a candidate's understanding of the business valuation body of knowledge generally accepted by the business valuation community.
- Upon successfully passing the ABV examination, complete the ABV credential application and pay the credential fee.
- Sign a Declaration of Intent to comply with the requirements of ABV recertification.

CPA®: (Certified Public Accountant)

CPAs are licensed and regulated by their state boards of accountancy. While state laws and regulations vary, the education, experience and testing requirements for licensure as a CPA generally include minimum college education (typically 150 credit hours with at least a baccalaureate degree and a concentration in accounting), minimum experience levels (most states require at least one year of experience providing services that involve the use of accounting, attest, compilation, management advisory, financial advisory, tax or consulting skills, all of which must be achieved under the supervision of or verification by a CPA), and successful passage of the Uniform CPA Examination.

In order to maintain a CPA license, states generally require the completion of 40 hours of continuing professional education (CPE) each year (or 80 hours over a two year period or 120 hours over a three year period). Additionally, all American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) members are required to follow a rigorous Code of Professional Conduct which requires that they act with integrity, objectivity, due care, competence, fully disclose any conflicts of interest (and obtain client consent if a conflict exists), maintain client confidentiality, disclose to the client any commission or referral fees, and serve the public interest when providing financial services. The vast majority of state boards of accountancy have adopted the AICPA's Code of Professional Conduct within their state accountancy laws or have created their own.

Professional Designations

Certified Financial Planner (CFP®)

Certified Public Accountant (CPA)

CFP®: (Certified Financial Planner)

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold a CFP® certification.

To attain the right to use the CFP® designation, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and as of January 2007, attain a Bachelor’s Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;

Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and Client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;

- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year);
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks. This requires 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and renewal of an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their Clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.
